

Money Matters

How should you balance the money you earn, spend, and save?

Week 1 at a Glance pp. 302–303

Week 2 at a Glance pp. 318–319

Selections

Realistic Fiction

My Rows and Piles of Coins

Procedural

Watch Your Money . . . Grow!

Fairy Tale

The Wisest Wish of All

Poem

“When Uncle Bob Came to Town”

Question and Answer

Helping Others One Dollar at a Time

Writer’s Model:

Procedural Text

A Plan for Your Money, Plus Interest!

Social Studies Connections

- Analyze a simple budget that allocates money for spending and saving
- Describe the costs and benefits of personal spending and saving choices

Literacy Objectives and Standards

READING

Comprehension	Ask Questions: Author’s Purpose Review Make Connections: Compare/Contrast Information
Vocabulary	Week 1 strategy, decorate, income, payment, errand Week 2 fee, invest, personal, borrow, budget
Word Study	Reference Materials
Grammar	Action Verbs
Fluency	Read in Phrases
Listening	Strategic Listening

WRITING

Form	Procedural Text
Writing Trait	Word Choice
Organizational Pattern	Sequence
Grammar	Singular and Plural Nouns Subject/Object Pronouns Capitalization 1