

On Moving Ground

How do underground forces shape the land we live on?

Week 1 at a Glance pp. 204–205

Week 2 at a Glance pp. 220–221

Selections

Personal Narrative

Into the Volcano

Adventure

Danger Lurks

Underground

Expository

Yellowstone National Park: Land of Wonders

Poem

"Black Sand Beach"

Fantasy

It's Not My Fault!

Writer's Model: Story

Surviving the Rapids

Science Connections

- Demonstrate an understanding of Earth's composition and the changes that occur to the features of Earth's surface
- Understand that the earth has many geological features that are constantly changing

Literacy Objectives and Standards

READING

Comprehension	Use Fix-Up Strategies Review Create Images
Vocabulary	Week 1 anticipate, realize, favorite, surface, volcano Week 2 demolish, repair, alert, earthquake, landslide
Word Study	Synonyms and Antonyms Multiple-Meaning Words
Fluency	Stress Words with Special Type Treatment
Listening	Critical Listening

WRITING

Form	Story
Trait	Voice
Organizational Pattern	Problem and Solution
Grammar	Common Nouns Proper Nouns Concrete and Abstract Nouns